TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

THE COMPANION aims to be a favorite in every family—looked for eagerly by the yonng folks, and read with interest by the older. Its purpose is to interest while it amuses; to be judicious, practical, sensible: and to have really permanent worth, while it attracts for the hour.

It is handsomely illustrated, and has for contributors some of the most attractive writers in the country. Among these are:

Edward Eggleston, Dr. I. I. Hayes, Prof. Jas. DeMille, Louise C. Moulton, Louisa M. Alcott, "Sophie May," Rebecca H. Davis, C. A. Stephens, C. W. Flanders, Ruth Chesterfield, S. S. Robbins, M. A. Denison.

Its reading is adapted to the old and young, is very varied in its character: sprightly and entertaining. It gives Charles Sumner.

Charles Sumner died yesterday at 2:50 o'clock p. m. On another occasion a brief sketch of his life will appear in this paper, but not to-day. The depth of sorrow which prevails over the country is a mark of the estimation in which this man was held. A man he was of the virtues which are called antique, but which are confined to no special era in the history of the human race. His moral and intellectual nature was one of those which appear, sometimes centuries apart, to improve and elevate that humanity which needs a champion most. Wherever a wrong existed, under the sanction or by the connivance of law, the soul of Sumner was instantly in arms against it. The spirit of the times, and fashion, and law. itself, were the combined enemies which he attacked, and over whom, in their great struggle, he won the victory.

Another Prince Coming.

A Berlin dispatch to a London newspaper annouuces the important fact (to Americans) that Prince Frederick Charles, of Prussia, intends to make a tour of the world next summer. What a Godsend his visit will be to the gushing toadies of nobility and royalty which infest our great cities. They have been pining since the Russian Prince left, and this visit of another will doubtless cheer them up a bit.

Prince Charles, or some one for him, achieved some notable victories in the Franco-German war, and his military prestige entitles him to courtesy from all men. But because he is a Prince, he is not worthy a thought from an American. Who can forget that Emperor William holds that he is a monarch by right divine, when this scion of Prussian royalty comes to democratic America? All of us ought to know in what esteem we are held by this monarch when we are so lavish of our adulation and sycophancy to representatives of divine.

Charles Dickens.

Those who have perused with moistened eyes the pages of Charles Dickens where he portrays the strength of woman's affection, or the natural ways of childhood, will not feel any increase of admiration for the writer when they calmly read the story of his life. To the amelioration of the condition of the lower orders in England, Dickens contributed much. His vivid portrayal of abuses which existed in the administration of justice, in the care of the poor, and other matters of public concern, brought the blush of shame to the cheeks of English statesmen, and a resolution to correct them.

The subtile analysis of crime, its motives, its execution, measures to evade punishment, remorse, and all the workings of the criminal's mind, are often laid bare to the world by judges in their charge to juries in capital cases. This identification of intellect is a prerogative of genius. The Seer lifts the veil which shrouds the minds of men from ordinary intelligences, and penetrates secrets which the owner thought hidden except from God. Much of what is mysterious in human action to the actor's themselves, is revealed to the few on whom the power of a poet and prophet has descended.

In studying the creations of the imagination of Dickens as of other original minds, no one can escape the magic of the author. We love to fancy that their best creations are emanations from their own existence. In truth it would be as just to think that their portraiture of rogues and villains are drawn from self-consciousness. But it is never so. The world is ever ready to give greater credit to those by whom it thinks it is benefitted, than is their due. Dickens is a ened, than is their due.

But our conceptions of Dickens are shocked when we know that he developed a greed for money. The Master taught us to despise the sordid lust for money for its own sake. Acting upon a false sentimentality he abandoned the society and companionship of the woman who he had taken to wife; and for no just cause left his oldest son without the advice and help of a father.

Though Dickens' life does not present any unnatural departure from the line of duty, yet it is so different from what we would have it that we are bitterly disappointed. We find that he was like other men in his everyday life.—The tenderness, self-denial, and heroism of his nature are only found in his writings; and his life does not offer an example which any one regards as an example of fulfilled duty rig[illegible]

Disease or Fear?

Mrs. Ada Agnes Noyes, better known in dramatic circles as Ada Clare, died about a week ago. She is loosely described as have died of hydrophobia, but the facts seem to indicate that her death was produced by a fear of that terrible disease. She was bitten by a dog on the 30th of January, which, however, entirely healed up, leaving not even a scar. A doctor said the dog died of hydrophobia, and then Mrs. Noyes became excited. Reports that she was disfigured for life by the bite, caused her to accept a theatrical engagement, and while performing in Rochester, she was taken ill on the stage, and carried from the theatre insensible.

She was taken to New York, and after her arrival in the city, on her way to her home in Bleeker street, she came in contact with a current of cold air, which she mistook for water and shrieked loudly. Notwithstanding her agony she retained her mental faculties to the last. Doubtless this unfortunate woman died of nervous excitement and fright. A dissection of the dog revealed a severe inflation of the lungs, and rupture of the coats of the stomach. The brute had shown no dislike to water, but on the contrary, had drank freely up to his death.

The immense advantage of a Southern Pacific railway is seen when we read that on the Union Pacific road all the freight trains caught in the snow blockade have been abandoned for the present. In Summit Valley the snow is twenty-five feet deep on a level. Several snow-plows and engines are off the track. One eastern bound passenger train is still at Alta, and a westward bound passenger train at Reno. Other western bound passenger trains lie at Tono. An eastward bound passenger train lies at Halleck's. At Cisco over six feet of snow have fallen during the present storm.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The hard hearted 'Friscoes will not pay Nilsson more than $500 a night. A clear fall off of $1,000 a week.

— The mother of the Turkish Sultan has ordered, at her own expense, sixty rifled six-pounders, with iron carriages and caissons, for the Turkish artillery service.

— Rice county, Kansas, which about two years was a fertile desert, has nearly 5,000 inhabitants, refuses to vote bonds, and won't allow a rumseller within its borders.

— Southern social circles are afflicted with a Teutonic individual who travels under the name of "William Baron von Kuffner," and also of "William Baron von Bellegarde, lieutenant Franz Joseph regiment No. 1."

— It does not appear to be the fate of the gallant Sheridan to meander through this vale of tears, soothed and sustained by the companionship of a loving wife, but he enjoys the next best thing, in having had a cooking-stove named after him.

— The question of sentencing habitual drunkards to imprisonment for long terms is being discussed in Montreal. The records of the jail there show that the same persons are imprisoned over and over again for short terms. This is the experience everywhere, and the long term system has been tried at least in one State, Rhode Island, where a person convicted of having been drunk three separate times within six weeks may be sent to the State Farm for six months. If, after being discharged the offense is repeated, a sentence of one year may be imposed, and so on up to three years. Whether any person has been reformed by the State Farm discipline is doubtful. No instance of reformation has been recorded.

— Adolph Rammens, tax receiver of Louisville, died suddenly on Tuesday. His life was insured, chiefly in Eastern companies, for about $150,000, of which amount $90,000 of insurance was obtained within the last eight weeks. The insurance agents here procured a post mortem examination of the body, and the stomach was sealed up for chemical analysis, to determine the cause of death, which the family physicians certify was congestion of the brain. A rumor is current on the streets that Rammens was behindhand in his accounts with the city, though no evidence of such a character has yet been developed. Rammers was to have met the Finance Committee of the City Council yesterday afternoon for a final settlement of his accounts.

"Wife, what has become of the grapes?" "I suppose, my dear, the hens picked them off," was the bland reply. "Hens—hens!—some two-legged hens I guess," said the husband, with some impetuosity; to which she firmly replied, "My dear, did you ever see any other kind?"

SPLENDID AND UNPARALLELED TRIUMPHS of the WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE CO., NEW YORK, Over Eighty-one Competitors, AT THE WORLD'S EXPOSITION, VIENNA, 1873, &c.

1. The Knight,s Cross of the Imperial Order of "Francis Joseph," conferred by his Apostolic Majesty the Emperor of Austria, upon the Honorable Nathaniel Wheeler, President of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company as the founder and builder of Sewing Machine industry.
2. The Grand Diploma of Honor, recommended by the International Jury for this Sewing Machine Company only, for their important contributions to the material and social welfare of mankind.
3. The Grand Medal for Progress, awarded for their New No. 6 Sewing Machine, being for progress made since the Paris Exposition of 1867, at which the only Gold Medal for Sewing Machines was awarded to this Company. Hence the Vienna award marks Progress not from a low level or inferior medal, but from a Gold Medal, the highest award made at Paris.
4. The Grand Medal for Merit, for the development of Needle Industry and excellence and superiority of manufactured samples exhibited
5. A Grand Medal for Merit, for excellence and superiorty of Cabinet work, the only award of the kind in this section.
6. Medals for several Co operators, of the Wheeler & Wilson Company for superior ability.
7. The Official Report, published by the General Direction of the Vienna Exposition, signalizes the supremacy of the Wheeler & Wilson Company for quantity and quality of manufacture, and position in the Sewing Machine business, as follows:

OFFICAL REPORT, VIENNA EXPOSITION, SEWING MACHINES, &c.

(GROUP 13, SEC. 2, n·)

"The greatest Sewing Machine Manufactures in the world is that of Wheeler & Wilson, New York, which alone has brought already over 900,000 of their Sewing Machines into practical use. The complete production of the parts by machinery is so regulated that each complete machine may be used as a sample for exhibition. This firm produces 600 well adjusted machines daily.

"The latest production of this firm, and which is the wonder of the Vienna Exposition, is they new No. 6 Sewing Machine. This universal machine sews the heaviest leather harness and the finest gauzes with a truly pearl stitch.

"Wheeler & Wilson have received the highest prizes at all World's Expositions, and at the Vienna Exposition were extraordinarily distiuguished."

FURTHER DISTINGUISHED HONORS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15, 1873

THE GRAND MEDAL OF HONOR OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE, NEW YORK,

Was unanimously reconmended by the judges of Sewing-Machines for

as being "a decided inmprovement over all other machines in the market," and which must revolutionize certain branches of industry, especially in Shoe and Harness Manufacting.

Baltimore, Md Oct, 31, 1873.

The Maryland Institute has awarded Wheeler & Wilson the Gold Medal for their New No. 6 Sewing Machine. Other Sewing Machines received nothing.

Savannah, Nov. 4 1073.

At the Georgia State Fair, a Silver Medal, the highest and only sremium for Leather Stitching, was awarded to Wheeler & Wilson for sample done on their No. 6 Sewing Machines.

AN ORDINANCE

CONCERNING A "DONATION" TO THE "CAPE FEAR AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION" BY THE CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C.

The Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, N. C.,

DO ORDAIN, and Direct as follows:

Section 1. That an election be held on Monday, the twenty-third (23) day of March, 1874, in the different Wards of this City, at the respective places at which the polls for the election of Alderman for the City of Wilmington are usually opened, for the purpose of ascertaining by a vote of the qualified voters residing in the City whether a donation of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000) in City of Wilmington Bonds, face value, shall be made by the City to the Cape Fear Agricultural Association.

Sec 2. That the said election shall be held under the same rules, regulations and penalties, as is provided by law in reference to elections of Aldermen of the City, and all persons qualified to vote for such Alderman shall be entitled to vote at said election. Those persons in favor of making said donation by the City shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the word "DONATION," and those who are opposed to such donation shall vote a ballot on which the words "NO DONATION," shall be written or printed.

sec. 3. The said Cape Fear Agricultural Association shall pay one half the expense of the said election, and shall deposit in advance the required amount with the City Treasurer.

The above Ordinance was passed at a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held February 27th, 1875.

T. C. SERVOSS, City Clerk and Treasurer.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Wallace Sisters were greeted with a good house last night, and judging from the shouts of laughter the audience enjoyed the burlesque. There is no particular merit in the play, but its supreme absurdity compels one to laugh. Fortescue as the widow, was immense. The ladies are pretty and active, their dancing very fine, but their vocal powers are rather below the average. Spencer is a fine Dutch comedian, and was thrice encored. His dancing was particularly ludicrous. The troupe, as a whole, is a fine one, the orchestra good, and we expect a full house to-night to witness the "Field of the Cloth of Gold," when a good time will undoubtedly be had.

DESTRUCTION.—Of late we have heard complaints of the ruin, by rabbits, of choice plants which were placed around the graves of loved ones in Oakdale Cemetery. A gentleman who visited the recent sale of flowers and bought some very costly plants and placed them around the grave of his consort, visited the cemetery this morning, finding his plants destroyed. We learn that it is against the rules of the cemetery company, and under ordinary circumstances a very just one, to allow fire-arms to be discharged inside of the inclosure of the hallowed spot, but as rabbits are ruining plants and impeding the progress of beautifying the grounds, we suggest that some plan be adopted to exterminate them even if an experienced marksman should be employed as the means.

MEMORIAL MEETING.—A meeting of our colored citizens was held to-day at the Freedmen's Savings Bank, to provide for the holding of memorial services of respect to the Hon. Charles Sumner. Owen Burney was called to the chair, and J. H. Smythe and J. E. Sampson were chosen secretaries.

The following committee was appointed from the city and townships to make the necessary arrangements, and the meeting will be held on Monday next, at 10 o'clock, a. m., at the City Hall:—Wilmington township—Rev. Messrs. Banks, Brady, Nichols, Spriggs, Horton, Epps and Price, and Messrs O Burney, chairman, G L Mabson, A Howe, I Swett, J H Whiteman, Duke Davis, J King, J Jones, W Cutlar, A Hargrave, G W Price, Jr, H Taylor. J C Hill, H Brewington, H M Hankins, C H Ward, J E Sampson, J H Smythe. Harnett township—D Nixon. Grant township—A Lloyd. Federal Point—F Davis. Masonboro'—J Beasly. Cape Fear—B Davis. Rocky Point—George W Hill. Columbia—A Walker. Caswell—A Brown. Lincoln—W McIntire. Holly—P Carr. Holden—J Lillington. Union—D Pigford.

This action is peculiarly appropriate among our colored citizens, and we are pleased to note their promptness of action. There will undoubtedly be a large attendance.

HOMICIDE—MURDERER DECAMPED.—Last night about ten o'clock, persons residing in the vicinity of Union Depot were in a fever of excitement over the murder at that Depot of Owen Rowe, a colored man, a resident of Lillington, by a watchman named Stokes, in the employ of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company. There are multifarious reports as to the cause and manner of the killing of the man Rowe, and we give the following version, which is about mediocrity, believing it to be as near correct as can be gotten until the subsidence of the excitement:

Watchman Stokes seeing several men standing around the ticket office for some time, went, in subserviance to his orders, to make them leave unless they had some legitimate business. The party were questioned and ordered to depart, and as the man Rowe did not seem inclined to acquiesce to the demand, the watchman shoved him along, when Rowe wheeled around and the couple "hitched," and finally had a "dog fall" when Stokes pulled out his pistol and shot at Rowe, without effect, while they were both on the ground; Rowe succeeded in breaking Stokes' hold on him, jumped up and ran about ten paces, when Stokes fired, the ball taking effect in Rowe's head. Stokes left immediately and has not since been seen. The evidence adduced before the Coroner's jury this morning did not differ materially from the above statement.

Do not waste time in useless regrets over losses.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 111⅛.

— Reporters busy to-day.

— Wallace Sisters to-night.

— Bro. Muse, of the Star, stays ill.

— Plenty of ice and frost this morning.

— When will Wilmington Grange meet again?

— The man Rowe, killed last night, was a witness in the Bell outrage last Monday.

— The little creek at the Cemetery was frozen over this morning.

— Orion Lodge, No. 67 will celebrate their first anniversary, April 27th, by a parade.

— Several weeks ago Red Cross street was ordered to be sawdusted to the cemetery, and as yet has not been. Look to it Mr. Marshal.

— The proportion of costs for the city elections on the question of taxation for the Sea Side road and the Agricultural Association, to be deposited by those organizations, must be deposited by the 14th.

MEETING. There will be a meeting of the voters of the First Ward, at the Market House in "Brooklyn" to-morrow evening.

THE roof of a building near the corner of Fifth and Castle streets, was discovered to be on fire about 3 o'clock this p. m., but was extinguished without material damage.

OUR Cornet Concert Club Band paraded this morning for the first time.—The members undoubtedly found it very different from playing in the rehearsal room, but they did remarkably well.—The line of march was down Front street. Upon their return, they were invited into Messrs. Adrian & Vollers' establishment, and kindly cared for. A complimentary tune in front of their building, and the band returned to their quarters. This drill is of great importance to the Club, as well as a pleasure to our citizens, and we hope to witness more of them.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—An adjourned meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night at City Hall.

The Mayor stated that the matter of laying taxes for the current year required the attention of the Board. On motion, the committee on Finance were instructed to report on the tax levy at the next regular meeting.

A special committee, consisting of the Mayor and Alderman Moore, were appointed to consider what changes and corrections were necessary to be made in regard to the block book.

The committee on Fire Department recommended that two cisterns, to contain 300 barrels water each, be placed in the First Ward, and the Mayor was authorized to advertise for bids and report at next meeting.

The committee on Lights reported adversely on petition of lamplighters for extra pay for putting the lamps in order when they came into office. The report was concurred in by the Board.

The committee on Market and Fees recommended that the Brooklyn Market be not removed at the present time.

The Mayor was authorized to advertise for bids for laying sidewalks on Market street, where repairs are necessary.

On motion the time for receiving bids for paving Front street with Belgian blocks was extended to the second regular meeting, being the first meeting in April; and it was further ordered that each contracting party furnish sample of stone, to accompany each proposal.

Petition from City Marshal, asking that some disposition be made of the female prisoners other than have them work on the streets, was referred to the committee on Streets and Wharves.

A petition of W. D. Mahn for damages sustained to his horse running into a scantling or sill on Fifth and Red Cross streets, in December last, was referred to Finance Committee.

Petition from Alex. Oldham, asking that arrangements be made by which rafts and small boats could be cleared and kept from blockading his wharf, thereby preventing vessels from lying there, was referred to the committee on Streets and Wharves.

Petitions from the following persons, asking position on the police force, were referred to the committee on Police:—E. Allen, John B. Dixon, John Skipper and Edward McGariable.

Capt. R. S. Radcliffe was granted permission to erect a wooden house on Fifth, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets.

The consideration of the matter of trimming shade trees was deferred until next meeting.

Board adjourned.

He who pays beforehand is served behindhand.

ABOUT LOVE STORIES.

"The power of Love,
In earth, and seas, and air, and Heaven above,
Rules, unresisted, with an awful rod;
By daily miracles declared a God:
He blinds the wise, gives eyesight to the blind;
And moulds and stamps anew the lover's mind."
DRYDEN.

And the morning came, rosy and golden, so wide-awake and thrilling, and flooded the studio with its crimson splendor, and wakened the sleeping shadows and melted the night-chilled tints upon the walls, into warmest being. Oh! morning. Oh! light. Oh! life. Oh! love, how dumb with bliss, seemed my soul, an artist's sanctum, in solitude and on a radiant morning, no sound of world, or care to shadow all the gladness. In the rapture this thought flashed; how came all this glory into my life? The fallen picture: mortified at my forgetfulness, I gazed about quickly to find it unhurt on the dainty blue and gold tapestry at my feet; but alas! alas! in its down-coming it had torn a ragged, wretched, irremidable corner in a canvass, whose front I could not see, but on the brown, linen threaded back were these few words of Shakspears,

"I grow to you, and our parting is a tortured body."

And the sun glinted over all and loved the warm words, and the morning grew old and bright, and the silence was broken and the world was astir again, and the surging crowd sent up their echoes, and from between it all and my golden dreaming, the door noiselessly swung apart, and the master came. The master, the maker, the father of all the beautiful painted thoughts blessing the walls of the studio. Throwing his hat upon a bronze Dante, he quick knelt, sighing and raised the ruined jem, with tender hands and reverant, and gazed into the eyes beaming upon him from the torn canvas. 'Twas his first thought, and how fond a one his sorrow plainly told, as he examined the evil the fallen landscape had wrought, a part of one small car, one stray brown curl, and a little of a beautiful white throat; from my brackets edge, I sorrowed and admired, though which I admired most, the sorrowing master or the ruined work, 'twas difficult to tell. The spirituele physique of a true artist quivering in pain over the ruthless destroying of a heart labor, or the fresh, perfect girl face, no accessions or art or fashion, but just the round, white throat, so torn and ruined; a delicate, strong mouth, soft, light hair and wonderful eyes, far-away looking eyes, full of dream wonders, and truth and soul, too paralyzed for thought—much less for work. The master knelt, wearily leaning upon the easel 'till the sun crept high enough to nearly find me out, and all the precious gems were bathed in the high morning glow, when a latch-key noiselessly turned in the door, and a veiled Nun, or Sister of the Sacred Heart stepped noiselessly in, followed by the original of the ruined portrait—come for the last sitting. The watchful chaperone accepted explanations, the novice or subject and master stooped to examine the extent of injuries; she would not believe it irremedable, and passing her hand beneath, pressed up the jagged corner, and in convincing her, there the master found it, found what? why, her hand, to be sure. I couldn't see, of course I couldn't, but the face on the canvas was not so full of rose, and the sorrow in the master's face quick melted out. The Sister was given "Dorey's wandering Jew to examine," but it was so cumbersome it must be put upon the pedestal in the alcove, and then, then another sitting was talked of—but, no! she would have this, this very one—it was to be the last one before all the soft, golden fleece was to be shorn, and the novitiate ended, it must be painted over, mended, sewed—anything only finished, and she told him her little story, and how 'twas best, for she was alone, and so, and so, and so, and 'twas hard to live, and London was so large—and, well then she was ready—and she tried to sit quiet and still; but there was another look in her eyes, and the master after retinting the little torn car—with pallette in one hand and canvass in the other—carried over to her the words on the back, and, and I believe, history says himself, for the words were beautiful, but Dorey's illustrations lost their charm, and the church and its arms were extended entreatingly, but her own heart entreated silently the protection of other arms, and the golden fleece shorn, and the torn canvas was completed, and when the Master's brush had found its way into all Europe, and all countries, and fame sat with him familiarly, no gem for him shone half so brightly as the sweet girl face, with a crease or defect in the canvas—about the throat and ear—save the original, and so by the falling of a little landscape one of the great Masters did as John Halifax did, and if you'd seen it you'd said it was beautiful, as I did.

Love never fails to master what he finds,
But works a different way in different minds;
The fool enlightens, and the wise he blinds.

CONCORD, March 12.

Returns from nearly all the towns have been received, show there is no election of Governor by the people.—Weston, democrat, lacks about 35 of a majority. The Council will probably stand two democrats and two republicans. The Republicans claim that they have elected five Senators and the democrats three with four vacancies.

The Chairman of the Republican State committee expresses the opinion that the House will be democratic.—The democrats claim that the returns from 222 towns show the House to stand, Democrats 154 Republicans 141, Independents 2.

The towns to be heard from gave, last year, democrats 22, Republicans 17.

Thursday, the day of formal entree of the Duke of Edinburg and his bride in London, will be observed as a holiday at the Government docks and arsenal at Woolwich.

If his health will permit, Gladstone will resume the leadership of the Liberal party in 1875.

The members of the late cabinet held a meeting to-day, at which, at the request of Gladstone, they agreed to accept the temporary leadership of the Marquis of Hartington. A section of the Liberals, however, propose to temporarily follow the lead of Vernon Harcourt or Robert [illegible].

The weather this morning is very favorable for the great event of to-day, the entry into London of the Duke of Edinburgh and his bride. A blinding snow storm prevails, and the ground is covered to the depth of three inches.—A great crowd is in attendance, and has assembled along the route from Paddington Station to Buckingham Palace, to greet the royal couple.

The Times has a laudatory obituary article on the late Charles Sumner.

WEEKLY REVIEW

OF THE

WILMINGTON MARKETS.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—There has been a steady depression in the tone of this market since the beginning of the present month. The demand has been very small and limited solely to orders. The receipts have been small, footing up only 1011 casks for the week. Friday the market opened firm at 43 cents, but since then the tone has been gradually weakening until Wednesday we had a decline of ½ cent to note. To-day the market closes quiet at 42½ cents.

TAR.—In this article only a moderate business has been done during our review period. At the beginning of the week the market had undergone no change in price, but factors were very willing to place the receipts at $2 30 as they looked for a decline. As soon as the subsidence of a demand for cargo a decline of 5 cts. was noted, and today it closes quiet at $2 25.

The receipts for the week foot up 573 bbls.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—We have to report a slow and dragging market for the entire week and although the offerings were only fair; the continued looked for decline, and anxiety on the part of factors to realize, caused a slight decline in prices. Tuesday cotton advices were "quieter," and the market quietly receded into the languor of spirits which had pervaded over it for nearly a month past. The receipts for the week foot up 518 bales

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear Region, and the believers in progress, whether

AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Prospectus for 1874--Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The commoun prejudice in favor of 'steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDIFE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALEINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALIENE will at a trifling cost, enloy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West," One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs, of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 10) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr Moran himself.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th, 1873.

Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs the color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,

(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American, They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificated is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows,

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it gives particular attention, it is the cheapest paper pullshed. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN,—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a pear. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.- A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,

Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Tyndall, Prof Huxley, Lord Lytton, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Oliphant, Dr W. B. Carpenter, C, Kingsley, Erckmann Chatrain, Ivan Turguenieff, Matthew Arnold, W. E. H. Lecky, Miss Thackeray, Miss Muloch, Prof. Richard A. Proctor, Katharine G. Macquoid, Jean Ingelow, Geo. MacDonald. Froude, and Gladstone, are some of the eminent authors lately represented in the pages of

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer,) Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turguenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox") Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together will an amount unapprea hed by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly chose "The Living Age"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.

THE LIVING AGE is sent a year (52 numbers,) postpaid, on receipt of $8; or six copies for $40, ☞ EXTRA OFFERS FOR 1874.

To new subscribers, now remitting $8 for the year 1874, the last six numbers of 1873 will be sent gratis; or to those wishing to begin with the New Series, the numbers of 1873 and 1874 (104 numbers), will be sent for $13; or, to those preferring, the publishers make the following

Club prices for the best home and Foreign Literature.

("Possessed of THE LIVING AGE and one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the whole situation.") Phila Bulletin.

For $10, any one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Bazar, or Appleton's Journal, weekly) is sent with THE LIVING AGE for a year; or, for $9, THE LIVING AGE and Scribner's St Nicholas; or, for $8.50, THE LIVING AGE and Our Young Folks.
